

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Consultant (C1) Positions:

Summary of Responsibilities

Under the supervision of a project manager or a senior consultant, you will complete the tasks laid out by management (collecting information, analyzing data, developing models / simulations) within innovation, procurement, supply chain or operations.

You will work with management to identify and assess concrete pathways towards improvement and will lead the effort in developing and formalizing specific initiative strategies.

Implement recommendations directly related to your client's operational teams

In charge of consolidating/ summarizing results with management and then presenting to the Steering Committee and/or Executive Committee.

Profile

Minimum Bachelor's degree from an Engineering or Business school

1 to 3 years of operational experience in operations or in a consulting role

Enjoy working as a team and are able to adapt quickly in order to evolve in various different environments with professionals from other cultures, with different experience.

You are a rigorous and conscientious worker with advanced analytical skill that is able to develop excellent relationships with clients

Proficient in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint).