

VINCENT FONTAINE APPOINTED SENIOR ADVISOR IN THE KEPLER FIRM.

Paris, June 9, 2020 – KEPLER, a consulting firm specializing in the optimization of operational performance, announces the appointment of Vincent Fontaine as Senior Advisor.

Vincent FONTAINE, a graduate from ESC Rouen, began his career as Managing Director of the Servifrais-York brand before holding the positions of Cold Network Managing Director and European FMCG / Retail Development Director at Hays Logistics, now Kuehne & Nagel.

From 2004, he held the positions of Supply-Chain Director and Logistics Director for EMEA, first at Castorama and then at the American multinational Flowserve. In 2011, Vincent joined ID Logistics as Director of Operations for France before becoming Executive Vice President of Operations for the group with more than 320 sites in 18 countries under his responsibility.

At the age of 68, Vincent joins KEPLER as Senior Advisor for Supply-Chain to share his sectoral and business expertise.

Fabrice MARIEAU, Associate Director at KEPLER about Mr. FONTAINE: « Vincent will shed light on the challenges facing the major logistics players and will strengthen our expertise in the FMCG/Retail, cosmetics/perfume and e-commerce sectors in particular. With a network built over the past 40 years, Vincent will provide us with support in deploying and cross-fertilizing all KEPLER's offers. »
